CINCINNATI RECREATION COMMISSION

CRC Rec Finder

Every park, rec center, pool, field and court, on one map

Briefing for CRC staff and the Board · November 2026

WHY A MAP

One place to find a place to play

For residents

Search by place, neighborhood or activity, and see what's there before you go.

For CRC staff

Each property's parcels, documents, plans and history in one record, tied to the map.

From what CRC has

Built on CRC's property inventory and site maps, plus public city and state data.

131
CRC properties

26
Rec centers & complexes

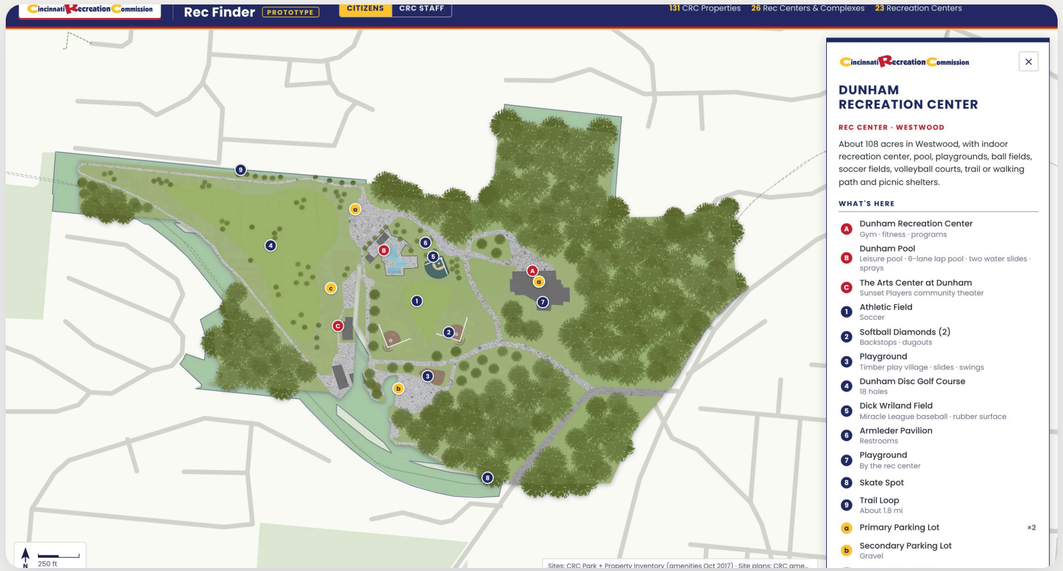

24
Pools

87
Playgrounds

Counts: CRC Park + Property Inventory (amenities as of Oct 2017), with CRC review corrections

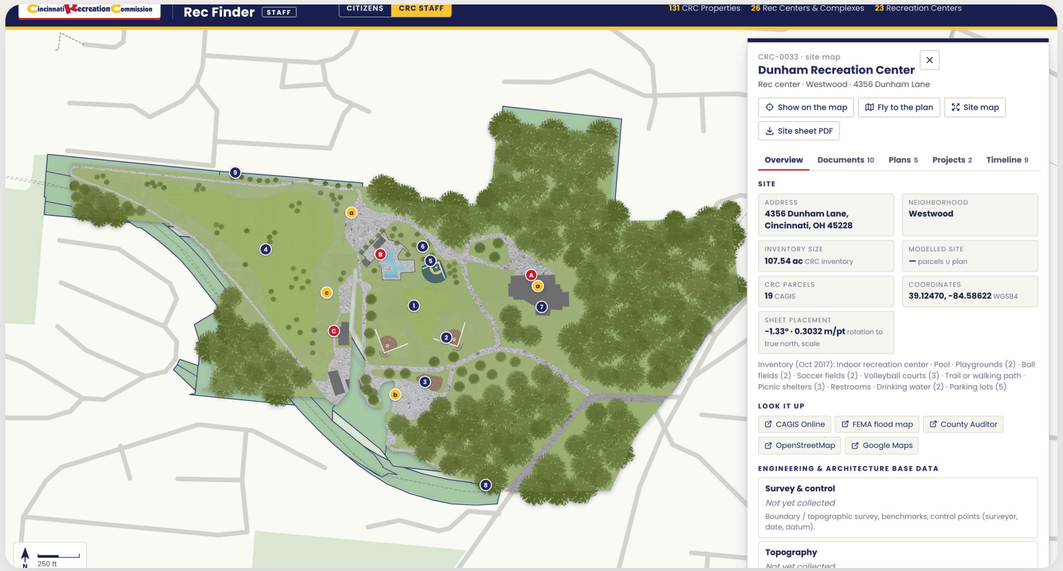

WHAT IT IS

One map, two sides

Residents

Search, filters, a card for every site, and each rec center's CRC map, printable as a PDF.

CRC staff

A record for every property: parcels, acreage, documents, plan versions, projects, timeline.

LIVE DEMO · ABOUT THREE MINUTES

Let’s fly through it

1. The whole city
2. Rec centers
3. A search
4. A property card
5. Dunham’s map
6. Up close
7. Printable sheet
8. Staff record
9. Back to the city

In the Rec Finder: Present, top right · → next · ← back · P pause · Esc end

HOW IT'S BUILT

CRC's own records, plus public data

What	From
Properties & amenities	CRC's property inventory (amenities as of Oct 2017)
Rec center site maps	CRC amenity maps, set at true scale and north
Property lines	City of Cincinnati CAGIS parcels
Base map	Ohio OSIP aerials, OpenStreetMap, Census TIGER/Line

Checked with CRC staff

Corrections go straight onto the map and into each site's record. From the latest review:

- Bond Hill mapped as two sites
- Mt. Echo's 10 pickleball courts
- Carll Street on its own land

NEXT STEPS

What it takes to launch

1	Confirm amenities site by site (the inventory dates from 2017)	[Owner · date]
2	Add newer amenities, starting with the mini pitches	[Owner · date]
3	CRC site maps for Ebersole, Lunken Playfield and Mt. Auburn	[Owner · date]
4	Decide where it lives and who keeps it current	[Owner · date]
5	Add a staff sign-in before the staff side holds internal files	[Owner · date]

Today's ask: [what you need from the Board]